Last Thursday, se'night died the Lady of Sir Samuel Armitage, Bart. in Yorkshire, who was much esteemed by the Nobility and Gentry of her Acquaintance, and equally lamented by the Neighbourhood for her charitable Disposition, and other good Qualities.

Last Night his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, and their Royal Highnesses the Princesses Amelia, Caroline, Mary and Louisa, were at the Theatre Royal in Drury Lane, and saw the Comedy of the Tender Husband and the Accomplished Fools.

Yesterday the Right Rev. Dr. Butler, Lord Bishop of Bristol, was Confirm'd at Bow Church with the usual Formality.

Last Week died at Hackfield in Berkshire, Anthony Sturt, Esq; a Gentleman of a plentiful Estate, and who had been in the Commission of the Peace for that County many Years. Counsellor Husley, of the County of Dorset, married his Daughter, to whom, we hear, he has left very Considerable by his Will.

On the 24th Day of November, in the Morning, died very suddenly, the Hon. Sir Charles Turner of Warham, Kt. and Bart. some time a Commissioner of Trade and Plantations, afterwards a Commissioner of the Admiralty, after that a Commissioner of the Treasury, and last of all one of the Tellers of his Majesty's Exchequer; and for many Years one of the Representatives of the ancient Corporation of King's Lynn; for which Burgh he was chosen as soon as qualified by Age, and served without Interruption, in every Parliament, from the Revolution down to this Time. He was a Gentleman of good Sense, an even Temper, and great Humanity; regular in his own Conduct, yet candid in his Judgment of others; free from Pride, Avarice and Spite; as was evident from his being so easy of Access, ready to oblige, and averse to Contention; a sincere Lover of his Friend, and his Country, and very upright, active, and discreet, in the Service of both; nor did he miss of that Reputation and Success, in the various Offices he discharged, which are the usual Fruits of great Integrity, Diligence, and Wisdom.

—In his Youth, he spent several Years in France; during which Time, the Edict of Nantz was revok'd, and the unhappy Protestants were persecuted in the most inhuman and savage Manner: From the sad Spectacles he daily saw of Ruin, Misery, and Death, wrought by Popish Zealots, upon Persons of all Ages, Ranks, and Professions, convicted of no other Crime than the keeping of a good Conscience, in the Worship of God; and from the Observations he had frequent Occasions to make upon the abject Slavery and wretched Poverty to which the arbitrary Power of the Grand Monarch had reduced his other Subjects, he contracted so just a Sense of true Religion and Liberty, as created an equal Abhorrence of all the Principles of Popery and Tyranny, and determined him, in every Station, and in every Season, to oppose with Vigour, all the subtil Schemes, and sly Measures, set on Foot, for the Introduction of both into these Kingdoms; but as his Manner was to resist the Attempts of Craft and Malice, without any Returns of rude Affronts or cruel Revenge, so his uncommon Civility, and generous Behaviour, to Men of all Parties and Conditions, was found to extort, if not Love, yet Respect, even from those who affected to stand in Opposition to him. He was twice married; for his first Wife he had Anne, the Daughter of Edward Walpole of Houghton, Esq; and Sister of the Rt. Hon. Sir Robert Walpole, Knight Companion of the most Noble Order of the Garter, by whom he had one Son, John, long since deceased, and two Daughters; of which, Anne, the Elder, was married to the Rev. Maurice Suckling, D. D. late Prebendary of Westminster; and Elizabeth, the Younger, is married to John Fowle of Broms, Esq; one of the Commissioners of Excise; a Gentleman who has by an excellent Temper, great Abilities, and a right Application of them, acquir'd an universal Esteem. To his second Wife he had Lady Catelyn, the Relict of Sir Nevil Catelyn of Kirby Kane, Kt. a Woman endowed with all amicable Perfections, who departed this Life on the 30th of August last, leaving the World in great Admiration of her Worth, and great Lamentation for her Loss. In his domestic Relations, his Virtue shone with no less Distinction, than appeared in his publick Office, always finding himself easy, and making all about him happy, by the constant Exchange of mutual Affection and Respect of Condescension and Beneficence on the one hand, and Submission and Gratitude on the other. This uncommon Goodness, carried on to an uncommon Degree and Length, will, even in an Age not famous for grateful Sentiments, continue a lasting Impression on the Memory of his worthy Relations and Friends, whilst his Name shall be transmitted down with Honour to late Posterity by his accomplished Nephew, who now inherits his Estate and Virtues.

Yesterday in the Afternoon a melancholy Accident happened at the Steel-yard, occasioned by the Fall of a Pile of Iron, by which unhappy Misfortune a Gentleman, sitting in a Chair taking an Account of the Iron, and his Son assisting to put it up, the former had his Thighs broke and otherwise bruised, that his Life is despair'd of; but the Son, with the great Weight of the Iron that fell on him, was killed on the Spot.

Yesterday in the Evening a young Lad about 14 Years of Age, Apprentice to Mr. Richard Parsons, a Barber and Peruke-maker in St. Margaret's Church-yard, Westminster, was unfortunately killed on the Spot, by the going off of a Fowling-Piece which was Charged, and left in the Shop: 'Tis supposed he was looking into it, and by some Accident went off.

The Coroner's Inquest will sit on him this Day.

Last Wednesday Night Islington Church was broke open, and robbed of several Books, &c.

The same Evening Mr. Bennet, a Coach-maker, was knock'd down and robbed, by two Foot Pads in Burlington Gardens, of a Watch, his Hat and Wig, and above 6 l. in Money.

CONSUMPTIONS of all Sorts, ASTHMA's, and all Disorders of the Breast and Lungs, Directly and infallibly cured by the CHYMICAL ELIXIR,

WHICH has restored so many Thousands labouring under the deepest Consumption, and most deplorable Asthma's to perfect Health and Strength in few Days Time, after all other the most celebrated Medicines had been try'd in vain.

It at once strikes at, and absolutely eradicates the first Principle or Cause of Consumptions, whether of the Lungs or any other Kind, as also of Asthma's, or Shortness of Breath, reduces the vicious Ferment of the Blood and Juices, over the acrid Salts which erode the Lungs, frees them from obstructing Viscosities, and does more real Good in less than any other Medicine whatever can in ten.

It assuredly retrieves the Patient, tho' reduc'd to a Skeleton; and immediately cures the most tedious and almost suffocating Coughs, Hoarseness, Wheezing, Shortness of Breath, Difficulty of Breathing, Pain, or Weight in the Breast; Spitting of Blood, Soreness of the Stomach, Throat or Windpipe: Also Catarrhs, or Deductions of sharp Humours, and all Pristial and Asthmatick Effects, Heetick Fevers, and Night Sweats, and Diarrhoea's, or Looseness, in a pleasant and agreeable Manner.

It is balsamick, healing and strengthening beyond Comparison; restores in all inward Weakness, and Disorders of Constitution whatever, perfectly cures Ulcers in the Lungs or in any other internal Part, causes free and easy Expectoration or long Breathing, and speedily and infallibly cures ASTHMA's, and all Sorts of CONSUMPTIONS, in less time than ever so bad, without the least Disorder, Trouble or Interruption, and is indeed the only true Remedy that can be depended upon for the entire Cure of those Maladies.

Nor can the whole Materia Medica afford a quicker or certain Cure for common Coughs and Colds; but the peculiar Character this most noble Chymical ELIXIR has to gain'd, for the direct and infallible Cure of Consumptions and ASTHMA's, &c. has occasioned many Attempts to counterfeit it; be careful therefore to have the Right, which is to be had only at Mr. RADFORD's Toyshop, at the Bell and Crown against St. Clement's Church-yard in the Strand, 2 s. 6 d. a Bottle with Directions, and at no other Place in England.

The Great Carminative.

A most famous Tincture for the Wind Cholic,

IN what Part soever lodged; for at once taking, and in five Minute's Time, it perfectly cures several Gripings in the Guts, and immediately expels the Wind from the Stomach or Bowels (as it were) to a Miracle.

For all wandering Pains in any Part soever, which are some Persons the Forerunners of a fixed Rheumatism, in the Gout (mistaken many times under the Notion of St.ickt Ailments) this famous Medicine has not its Fellow, being wrought Wonders in these Cases on great Numbers of People, who, before taking it, could neither sit, stand, nor at Ease; but were in intolerable Pain Night and Day, and taking less than half a Bottle, were absolutely freed from the present Pain, and, by a short Continuance of the Cure recovered to perfect Health again.

As for any Belchings or Hiccups, proceeding from Wind or, in short, in any Case of Wind, it may be depended on the best, safest, most expeditious, and most sovereign Remedy ever yet known.

It is sold only by Mr. King, Printseller, in the Strand near the Royal Exchange, and by Mr. Martin, Toyshop, the Sign of the Duke of Cumberland and the Three Rabbits in Cranbourn-alley, near Leicester-fields, at 3 s. a Bottle.

The Princely beautifying LOTION.

Whose INIMITABLE VIRTUES and TRANSCENDENT EXCELLENCIES have gained it so much Reputation, that envious Imitators endeavour, tho' in vain, to counterfeit it.

It beautifies the Face, Neck, and Hands to the utmost Perfection, and is in the greatest Esteem amongst Ladies; for the first Quality. No Words can sufficiently express its Virtues; for it is not of the Nature of Paint, which puts a false and unnatural Gloss on the Skin; but is a Remedy that, in its Use, really gives a Lustre to the most Beautiful, by bringing the fine Features of the Face, and is so safe, not taking the least Grain of Mercury in it, that it may be taken inwardly and if smelted to, is really good against Vapours.

It infallibly kill Worms in the Face, takes away Freckles, Spots, Wrinkles, Pits, or Marks of the Small-Pox, and assidually cures any Defects in the Face, giving a charming young Lustre and fine Air to the Features, to Admiration.

As for such Persons as are of a swarthy Complexion, or troubled with any disagreeable Redness, Roughness, Mole-heats, or the like, it is not to be parallel'd, for it immediately smooths, clears, plumps, nourishes, and whitenes the Skin to the last Degree, and makes those Persons who before look'd haggard and old, to look young, beautiful, and fair; and, in short, it far exceeds any thing that was ever yet known made publick, for clearing and beautifying the Skin.
